Patti's Ponderings

Jesus says, "I have come that they might have life and have it abundantly." -John 10:10b

How do we stay grounded amidst the chaos of life's demands, the constant chatter of social media, and whatever the election cycle brings this fall? That is the question we will be considering in September. Each Sunday we will explore a practice to help us keep firm footing in the joys and pressures of life. There are simple practices that are not "one more thing to do," that can be life-giving for us. Let's gather in worship, to center our lives in the grace of God and discover the abundance Jesus intends for us. ~Pastor Patti

Animal Blessing

On October 3rd from 10-11, we will have an animal blessing! Pastor Patti will be at the Gazebo, at the far end of our building and parking lot. Come anytime between 10:00 and 11:00 and we will bless your pets. God loves all of creation. This is a special time to offer care to our beloved non-human companions.

Celtic Pilgrimage Information Night

Pastor Patti will be co-leading a Celtic pilgrimage to Inis Mor, one of the Aran Islands off the west coast of Ireland, next summer in the last week of July. It will be a spectacular week to visit ancient religious sites including stone chapels, circle forts and a portal tomb. We will learn about Celtic Christian spirituality and meet the saints who shaped this tradition. We will pause regularly for reflection and contemplation allowing the wisdom of the ruins and landscape, the ancestors, and the Spirit of God to inform our faith and life today. If you want to learn more about Patti's trip this past summer, and/or consider joining her next summer, come on Tuesday, Sept. 29th at 7 pm.

From the Associate Pastor's Desk

Change is never easy...

And there has been a lot of change going on.

I have visited with parents dropping their children off for their first semester of college while some other church members have been helping their parents move into assisted living. I have also had the opportunity to talk with people dealing with change related to their health or who are coming to terms with the death of someone they love.

As boxes move back and forth, from homes, Goodwill stores, dormitories or assisted living, it is hard to adapt and accept change. Some changes are exciting while others seem overwhelming.

Over the last few months, I have been exploring how stoicism and Christianity fit together and how many early Christians may have been stoics themselves before converting to Christianity. What I have found has been a surprising path to coming to terms with change as well as accepting change.

In Christianity, we are taught that one must have faith that change leads us to something better... while stoicism teaches that we must control what we can while letting go of what we are not able to control.

For both disciplines to work, three things need to happen:

1. Shift your Mindset.
2. Manage Your Emotions.
3. Take Practical Action.

As you shift your mindset, acknowledge the transition. Write down what is positive and what is negative about the transition. Focus on what things you can control and separate them from what you can't control. Expect that there will be a learning curve... give yourself grace and permission to learn and make mistakes. Reframing the narrative means looking for opportunities, personal growth or lessons within the shift.

For managing your emotions, don't just shut them down... allow yourself to grieve. Write down what you fear and take time to name your anxiety. Instead of focusing on worst case scenarios, practice mindfulness... be present in the moment. Do talk with friends, family or professionals about your feelings and how to process your feelings out loud.

To move into practical action, plan to keep core routines. Eat good food, take naps, go to bed at a consistent time. Start exercising or start up a hobby that will allow you to focus on something positive. Take small steps. Maybe a short walk or just taking time for volunteering can help focus on a positive experience. Continue to ask yourself questions. How do you feel? What do you fear? Are those fears justified or just part of your imagination?

At the end of the day, celebrate your success! Reflect back on your day and celebrate those small steps you have taken to deal with change.

One aspect of Christianity that stoicism doesn't have is the use of prayer. While stoicism does use reflection, I find prayer to be a way to ask how God is involved with the change I'm experiencing. It also gives a sense of comfort in asking for God and the universe to understand what I am thinking and feeling while giving God permission (as well as the universe) to become part of the change.

If you are finding yourself needing community, please know that Smoky Hill UMC is here for you as the changes of life happen.

This fall, our groups are here to help us all navigate change: Young at Heart lunches, Beer and Theology, workshops on grief and healing as well as our Sunday school classes, music groups, book studies, crafters, and various men, women, youth, social justice, missions, and Rainbow Alliance, etc. From Pastor Patti's Pockets of Peace to participating in small groups and worship, we are here for you.

"You cannot direct the wind, but you can always adjust your sails. Trust your ability to navigate new waters and discover strengths you didn't know you had... know you are not alone and that God as well as those you love and who love you go with you."

I look forward to seeing you online or in person... as well as walking with each other as change happens...

Open Door - Sundays at 9:00 am in Room 218 This class is a welcoming, inclusive environment, inviting individuals from diverse backgrounds to participate, whether you're new to Bible study or have been participating for years. Come as you are! No need to prepare or do homework - just bring yourself and an open heart. We use various forms of media to stimulate thoughts and ideas and focus on meaningful conversation and spiritual growth rather than formal lessons. No need to RSVP - just drop in whenever you can. For more information contact Kim Brice kbrice227@gmail.com

The Way of Faith – Sundays at 9:00 am in the Upper Room & on Zoom

This is an inclusive and open group whose focus is on God's love in our world today and how we can do better to live God's will in our lives. We start each class with a video that includes such authors and theologians as Richard Rohr, Diana Butler Bass, AJ Levine, Adam Hamilton and many, many more. Each Sunday is a standalone teaching and conversation allowing people to attend when possible. We hope you will join us as we gather to discern the way of Christ in our lives today and seek to be deeper rooted in the love of God.

Grounded Sunday School Group offers an open space for sharing, support, fellowship, and spiritual growth for adults. Discussions may include family faith formation, parenting, marriage, and living as Christians in today's world. Specific studies and/or topics are determined by the group on an ongoing basis depending upon needs and interests. Grounded also typically joins in the church wide studies during both Lent and Advent. Feel free to join us on Sunday mornings at 10:00 AM in Room 210 during the school year. This group does not meet during the summer, from Memorial Day weekend to Labor Day weekend.

Parenting 20-Somethings Group

We are a group of parents that gather each month to talk through the triumphs and trials of parenting our 20-something old children. We would love for you to join us. This group led by Pastor Patti, mother of two 20-somethings, is open to our congregation and community. We meet on the third Thursday of each month at 7:00 p.m. Call the church office to get a code to enter the building if you, or someone you know wants to join us.

Octogenarians: Living into our eighties with grace and purpose

If you are in your 80's, join Pastor Patti for conversation and connection this fall. She is interested in learning from you and exploring what it looks like to thrive in elderhood. We will use Joyce Rupp's book, The Years of Ripening, as a guide in our conversation. We will explore topics such as: anxiety and uncertainty, handling loss, physical decline, death, hope and purpose, spiritual transformation, and serenity. You are special people, with much joy and wisdom to share with the world, even as your bodies slow down. Also, life throws us challenges as we age which can be difficult to navigate. We will find a good time to gather and begin meeting in October. If you are interested, please contact Pastor Patti or Lynne in the church office.

Come join Tuesday Morning Theologians beginning September 15th as we read and discuss Richard Rohr's The Universal Christ- How a Forgotten Reality Can Change Everything We see, Hope For, and Believe.

In one sentence, The Universal Christ argues that Jesus came not merely to start a religion, but to reveal the eternal presence of divine love already woven into all creation.

From the book description: Drawing on scripture, history, and spiritual practice, Rohr articulates a transformative view of Jesus Christ as a portrait of God's constant, unfolding work in the world. "God loves things by becoming them," he writes, and Jesus's life was meant to declare that humanity has never been separate from God—except by its own negative choice. When we recover this fundamental truth, faith becomes less about proving Jesus was God, and more about learning to recognize the Creator's presence all around us, and in everyone we meet. Thought-provoking, practical, and full of deep hope and vision, The Universal Christ is a landmark book from one of our most beloved spiritual writers, and an invitation to contemplate how God liberates and loves all that is.

We meet at 9 am on Tuesdays in Room 214. For more information or to RSVP contact John Tedrick at johntedrick@me.com

Lunch Bunch Study Group

Lunch Bunch will be reading Love Does, by Bob Goff, Sept. 15 through Oct. 13. Join us for this 5-week study.

Love Does is full of paradigm shifts, musings, and stories from one of the world's most delightfully engaging and winsome people. What fuels his impact? Love. But it's not the kind of love that stops at thoughts and feelings. Bob is convinced love takes action. Bob believes Love Does.

We meet in room 214 at 11:30 and share lunch together. For more information contact Kathy Tedrick at kathytedrick@me.com or Fran Krech at krechf@yahoo.com

Young at Heart Lunch & Program

This group of older adults meets the second Thursday of the month at 11:30 am for lunch and then an educational or musical program.

Next Young at Heart Lunch & Program is Thursday, September 10 @ 11:30 am.

Please RSVP to 303-690-9816 or churchsecretary@smokyhillumc.org

For more information contact Fran Krech krechf@yahoo.com

(PLEASE NOTE, THE DAY OF OUR YOUNG AT HEART LUNCHEONS HAS CHANGED FROM THE 3RD THURSDAY TO THE 2ND THURSDAY OF THE MONTH!)

Beer & Theology

Wow! What a great evening with Steven and Deborah Stanley as they opened their home and shared with us some great award-winning beer and homemade wine!

Who knew that both Steve and Deborah have won numerous awards, ribbons and accolades for their craft?

We also had one of our largest turnouts to discuss the theology and philosophy behind the movie, 'The Odessey' which led into a great discussion on how ancient cultures as well as Christianity expected to give and receive hospitality to strangers.

For September, we will take a break from meeting but are looking at checking out Aurora's newest brewery for Oktoberfest!

We are currently trying to contact and work out a date and time in October to go to ZoiglBrau at 15120 E Hampden Avenue in Aurora. Pencil in the first Sunday evening of October 4th after the Bronco's game. Please watch for the October newsletter to confirm this date and time.

If you are a beer or wine maker and would like to host a gathering, please know that we are looking for you if you would be open to host.

In addition to October, we will meet in early November and are looking at scheduling hosts and breweries January-April of 2027. If there is a favorite local brewery you think we should try that can host 10-25 people, please let me know!

Future discussions will look at Progressive Theology as well as how Orthodox Theology is changing and adapting to new thoughts and concepts about how God moves forward in time. Does God remain a constant or does God change to meet us where we are? Maybe there is a sense of both?

Email: associatepastor@smokyhillumc.org for any thoughts, comments or ideas regarding how we can make this event a positive and meaningful experience.

Save the date for Saturday, November 7th for our 2nd Good Grief Breakfast and Workshop from 8:00 a.m. to noon.

As we move into the holiday season, the grief from losing a partner, parent, grandparent, sibling, friend, or child we have loved, as well as going through the grief of a job change or experiencing the grief of changes in our country and politics can make us feel isolated and alone.

Having the ability for people to come together, enjoy breakfast and talk about issues around grief and grieving can help us support each other as we move through the holidays of Thanksgiving and Christmas.

If you have attended the first breakfast workshop, please know you are welcome to come back to continue to work with your own grief while helping others who may be attending for the first time. If you missed the first Good Grief event and are having feelings of loss or would like to know how to help others going through loss, this breakfast will be an introduction to learn, process and move with the grief process.

To honor and respect each person's privacy, we will not be using zoom, teams or posting this event to social media.

Please RSVP your interest to attend this event to associatepastor@smokyhillumc.org

JUSTICE MINISTRIES

Interfaith Meditation at Centennial ICE Office (note: this is NOT at the GEO Detention Center)

The twice-monthly, interfaith meditation sessions at the Centennial ICE office are going strong!

Everyone is welcome to drop in and participate. We gather on the first Sunday and third Saturday of every month, 9:30 - 11 am, on the sidewalk in front of the ICE building at 12445 E Caley Ave. in Centennial.

We open with a short reading, then have both seated and walking meditation, and close with a reading and group reflections. Our next gathering days are Sept. 6, Sept. 19,

Oct. 4 and Oct. 17. Please bring a chair (or something you'd like to sit on) and water.

RACIAL JUSTICE TASK FORCE

660 Loaves and 264 Fish

Matthew 14:13–21; Mark 6:30–44; Luke 9:10–17; John 6:1–14

You are amazing!

On August 8, on a hot summer evening, 132 everyday people showed up outside the GEO Detention Center in Aurora to bear witness to our neighbors detained inside an Immigration and Customs Enforcement facility.

We sang. We prayed. We listened and learned. And we raised our voices together, shouting, “¡No están solos!” — “You are not alone!”

Bishop Stoneking, Reverend Patti, Reverend Glen, and our music director, Dan, helped us reflect on what our duty as Christians looks like. Together, we stood in opposition to the lack of due process, the conditions inside the detention center, and the inadequate medical care provided to those detained there. Most importantly, we stood in solidarity with people who could not stand outside with us.

It can feel overwhelming sometimes. When the problems of the world are enormous and our individual resources seem so small, it is easy to convince ourselves that there is nothing meaningful we can do.

Reverend Patti mentioned in a sermon a story told in all four Gospels that offers us another way to think about that question. Five thousand people had gathered to listen to Jesus, and they were hungry. What was available to feed such an enormous crowd? Just five loaves of bread and two fish.

It wasn't enough. At least, it shouldn't have been.

But Jesus took what was offered, blessed it, and gave it to the disciples to share. Somehow, there was enough—enough that there were leftovers.

Fast-forward to 2026. We are confronted with an immigration system that we believe is cruel, racist, unfair. So, what is our role as Christians?

We cannot individually change the administration's immigration policies. We cannot single-handedly fix the detention system.

But wait.

It wasn't the disciples' job to feed 5,000 people. Their job was to bring forward what they had: five loaves and two fish.

Maybe our job isn't so different. We bring what we have.

We attend a rally. We sing. We pray. We speak up. We write letters. We call our elected officials. We educate ourselves and our neighbors. We show up for people who may wonder whether anyone outside those detention walls knows they are there.

And sometimes, 132 ordinary people stand together on a hot August evening and shout loudly enough for their detained neighbors to hear: You are not alone.

That evening, each of us brought our own five loaves and two fish. Together, 132 people brought 660 loaves and 264 fish. We may never know how far those loaves and fish will travel or whose spirit they will nourish. But that's none of our business. Our job is simply to bring what we have, offer it with love, and trust God to multiply it.

Bring your five loaves and two fish. And then watch what happens when we bring them together.

5 & 2, baby, 5 & 2.

OCTOBER PUMPKIN PATCH

The Men's Group will be selling pumpkins in October, so please buy your pumpkins here at SHUMC! Help spread the word as this is a major fundraiser for the Men's Group!

MISSION

Afghan Family Support

One of the two Afghan families that we sponsor could use some additional support next month. They will be welcoming a baby boy on about Oct 14th. They could use some additional help with baby supplies like wipes and disposable diapers. At this point they also need help with newborn clothes, blankets, onesies, a baby carrier and a stroller. Please drop off new or gently used items with Crystal and Lee Honnen will get them out to the family. Thank you for your continued support to this mission.

Did You Know?

Every week, the Cookie Company, located in Southlands, donates cookies for our Outreach of Love lunches. If you need cookies, please consider purchasing cookies at the Cookie Company.

What We Do Matters!

Have you ever wondered if the things we donate make a difference? Elizabeth Tessler, who delivers our food and school supplies to Aurora Interfaith, sent this update: "So many families are thrilled with the new backpacks and school supplies! Thank you, Smoky Hill UMC. One mother had tears in her eyes, explaining that her three daughters will be so happy since she had just told them they would have to use last year's backpacks since the straps are not broken." A new backpack might not seem like much, but for those girls it means they can start the year with something new. We are making a difference!

September is Healthy Aging Month

Founded in 1992, "September is Healthy Aging Month" was created to draw attention to the positive aspects of growing older and to encourage adults to take greater responsibility for their physical, mental, social and financial well-being. This year's theme is "Curiosity has no age limit". It celebrates the role curiosity can play in helping us stay engaged, keep learning, discover new interests and continue exploring what comes next. Yoga at Smoky Hill

Our Music Director Dan Nebel is excited to be joining the yoga community at Smoky Hill UMC to teach weekly classes starting on Tuesday, September 15th in Celebration Hall from 10:30 to 11:30. Classes are free, with donations accepted that will go towards supporting the music program at Smoky Hill. Zachary, our previous instructor, has moved on to specialize in working with clients suffering from Parkinson's disease.

Dan completed his 200-hour teaching certification with Kindness Yoga in 2018 and has since taught at YourAshtanga Yoga Studio and the Golden Recreation Center. Dan continues to teach trauma-informed yoga with Comeback Yoga, which provides free yoga classes for Active-Duty Military, Veterans, and their families throughout Colorado and online. In addition to teaching yoga, Dan is also a NASM-certified Personal Trainer who specializes in working with older adults in Functional Fitness and Corrective Exercises.

MUSIC

Participate in Music Ministry in the Fall and Upcoming Events

Chancel Choir will resume regular rehearsals on Wednesday nights 6:00-7:00 on Wednesday, August 19th. Chancel choir sings for services about once a month on the first Sunday of the month and for most holidays of the church. We will be joining our voices in an ecumenical choir concert at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on Saturday, September 26th. All levels and abilities are invited to join.

Dr. Dan will be regularly holding a “Music Reading 101” class from 5:30-5:50 prior to choir rehearsal that is open to anyone in the congregation interested in learning how to improve their music reading skills. This will be video-taped and available on YouTube each week.

Crystal Bells (Handbells Choir) will be resuming their regular rehearsals on Tuesday nights beginning August 17th from 5:30 to 6:30 PM. Dr. Dan will be teaching an optional 20-minute ringing technique and music reading class regularly at 5:00 PM on Tuesdays for anyone looking to become more comfortable on handbells. Crystal Bells rings about once a month, mostly on the third Sunday of the month and often for church holidays. A commitment to ringing on specific dates is necessary for planning music, substitute ringers can usually be arranged for rehearsals. You do not need to read music to play with Crystal Bells.

Youth Choir will begin rehearsals on Sundays at 11:00-12:00 starting on September 20th. Open to all youth 6th through 12th grades; youth choir often collaborates with other ensembles at SHUMC and leads the music for the annual Youth Sunday in January.

Good News Singers is a smaller, unaccompanied choir that sings for services about once a month and is led by Tim Davis. They usually rehearse Wednesday nights following the Chancel Choir rehearsal for the three Wednesdays before their scheduled services.

Praise Team rehearses on Tuesdays from 6:30 to 8:00 PM. Praise Team usually plays services for the second Sunday of the month and are especially looking for people to play bass, guitar, and sing.

Other Volunteer Opportunities There are additional needs for hymn leaders during Sunday services and slots to assist with our A/V Team running sound, slides, and the livestream during services. Please reach out to Dr. Dan at music@smokyhillumc.org if those are opportunities you'd like to explore.

TRUSTEES

Wednesday Work Group

There is a dedicated work group of individuals that meet up at the church on Wednesdays from 9:00 to 12:00 to do all types of maintenance projects to improve the church building. We paint, patch walls, fix tables, clean doors, install lights and many other needed tasks. I would like to invite any other individuals that would be interested in helping out to join us whenever possible. All materials are provided. Please feel free to give me a call (Mark Brinton 303-961-5272) if you have any questions. Thanks.
